

By the King and Queen,
A P R O C L A M A T I O N

Requiring the Bringing in of A R M S lately Embezelled.

W I L L I A M R.

Whereas divers Muskets, Pistols, Carabines and other Arms belonging to Us, have been lately by Soldiers and others, Unduly and Carelessly Lost, Disposed and Embezelled in divers Parts of this Kingdom, having on them Our Mark, commonly called the Tower Mark: We do give Notice unto, and hereby Require and Command all Our Loving Subjects, that have in their Custody, or can discover where any of the said Arms are, That they give Information thereof to the Mayor or Chief Officer of the Town, or next Justice of Peace of the County wherein the said Arms shall be: And that the said Mayor, Chief Officer of the Town, and next Justice of Peace respectively, is hereby Required to take the same into his Custody, and give Notice thereof to the Master-General of the Ordnance in the Tower of London, to the intent the same may be brought into Our Stores, to be preserved for Our Use.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall this 28th day of February, 1688. In the First Year of Our Reign.

God save the King and Queen.
